

Adult Census Income Prediction

So the first thing anyone would see is this page.

Predictive analysis

Enter your age

Select your work class

Private

Select your work class

HS graduate

Select your education number?

 1

What's your marital status

Married-civ-spouse

What's your occupation

Prof-specialty

What's your relationship status

Husband

What's your race

White

What's your gender

Male

Enter your hours per week

Predict the income

Here you need to type your age and hours per week you're working.

The rest of the fields are drop down menu, which you can choose based on your status. For example if you click utmost right side then you will see a drop down menus just like you see in the below image.

Predictive analysis

Enter your age

23

Select your work class

Private

Private

Self-emp-not-inc

Self-emp-inc

Local government employee

State government employee

Federal government employee

Unemployed

Never worked

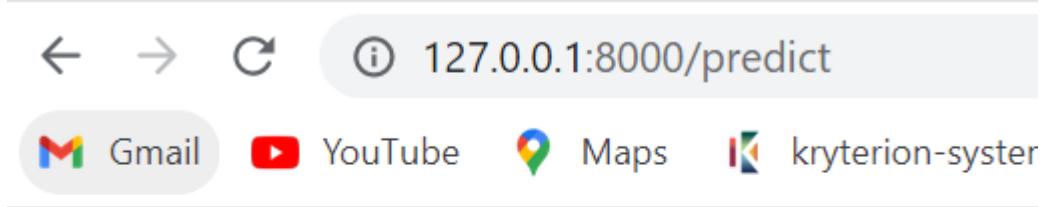

What's your marital status

Married-civ-spouse

So when you click on the work class, it displays it lists out the variety of option based on your working class.

Lets assume you have filled all the filled and when you click on Predict income, it will predict the status of your income.

Your salary is less than 50K

By this it has predicted the output based on your input.